(a) whether textile industry of Varanasi is passing through a critical period due to rising prices of silk;

(b) if so, the percentage increase in silk prices, during the last two years; and

(c) the steps taken to supply good quality of silk at reasonable prices?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI RAFIQUE ALAM): (a) to (c) Percentage increase in prices of twisted Silk Yarn of 20|22 Dr. at Varanasi market during the last 2 years is as under:—

Year	Average Price (Rs./kg.)	Percentage increase over preceding year/ corresponding year
1987	683
1988	910	33.2
1989 (Jan—March)	1021	10.9

In order to provide relief to the silk weavers in the country, (including UP), Central Silk Board was allowed to import 100 tonnes of raw silk under its Price Stabilisation Scheme. Out of 36 tonnes of raw silk imported by the Board so far, approximately 10 tonnes has been allotted to handloom agencies in Uttar Pradesh which has been distributed. Besides, permission has been granted to agencies in UP to import a total quantity of 30 tonnes of raw silk directly for distribution among the weavers of the State.

In addition, Karnataka Silk Marketing Board has opened an additional silk yarn depot at Varanasi and has offered to sell silk yarn on credit to 3 Apex Co-operative Societies on the guarantee of the Govt. of Uttar Pradesh.
